CONFERENCE ON WAR TAX
APPROACH AGREEMENT
Washington, D. C. Oct. 21.—After a conference with president Wilson on disputed points between house and schate on the war revenue hill, representative Underwood and senator Simmons took under consideration a tentaire proposal to reduce the senate fax of $1.71 a barrel on beer and to restore the house tax on gasoline. Both leaders were hopeful of an agreement and that congress would silours Saturday.

It was proposed to reduce the beer tax from $1.75 to $1.20 and to restore the gasoline tax, probably at not to exceed one craft a gallon.
